

MISSING!

JAMES MADISON

Our friend and colleague James Madison has disappeared on us and we are desperately in need of help locating him. He will be a gentle man wearing a black frock coat, powdered wig and possibly a tricorne hat. If he is speaking clearly, he will be talking about politics, his wife Dolley and Virginia. But ever since we were kidnapped and brought to 2012 Chicago, he has been ill and incoherent. If you see him, please contact us immediately.
